

WOODS HOLE
SCIENCE AQUARIUM
NOAA

Woods Hole Science Aquarium
-SCAVENGER HUNT

| What to look for.... | Did you find it? | Please list the species of animal | List a fun fact you read about the animal |
|---|------------------|--|---|
| EXAMPLE: An animal that walks on two legs | ✓ | Human | This animal lives in habitats all over the world! |
| An animal that swims in schools | | Moonfish Spadefish Salmon | |
| An animal that has venomous spines | | lionfish | |
| An animal that does not have a backbone | | seastar - urchin - anemone - any invertebrate | |
| An animal with a shell | | Hermit crab diamondback krapin | |
| An animal that looks like a plant | | anemone | |
| An animal with more than 8 arms/legs | | Sun star horseshoe crab | |
| An animal with a flat body form | | Halibut Flounders | |
| An animal that hides in the sand | | Northern Puffers American eels Flounders | |
| An animal with teeth that you can see by looking closely at its mouth | | Sheepshead triggerfish | |
| An animal that breathes air. | | Harbor seals | |

WOODS HOLE
SCIENCE AQUARIUM
NOAA

Woods Hole Science Aquarium
-SCAVENGER HUNT

| | Did you find it? | Please list the species of animal you found | List something interesting you observed about this animal. |
|---|------------------|---|---|
| EXAMPLE: A kitchen where biologists make food for the animals | ✓ | Human | The biologists prepare 8000 pounds of food for the animals each year! |
| An animal that can swallow water or air to enlarge the size of its body | | Northern Puffer Striped burrfish | |
| An animal with spots | | Snowy grouper harbor seal | |
| A reptile | | diamond back terrapin | |
| A blue animal | | Lobster | |
| An animal that moves by using its tube feet | | Sea star urchins | |
| An invertebrate (no backbone) | | Sea stars urchins anemones | |
| An animal with no blood | | Sea star | |
| An animal that is a protected species | | Atlantic Salmon Harbor Seals diamondback terrapin | |